Ethics of Social Media & New Technologies

March 12, 2020
9am-12:15pm
3.0 CEUs

Registration begins 8:30am

Clark State Community College's Brinkman Education Center
100 S. Limestone St.
Springfield, Ohio

PURPOSE

More people than ever before are using the internet to connect with one another through various avenues of social media and new technologies. This poses both benefits and challenges to those working in health and human services professions.

This workshop will address:

- Ethical implications of social media and new technologies.
- Website-specific risks, benefits, and strategies to avoid ethical violations.
- Social media in an organizational context and how to discuss social media use with clients.
- Benefits and risks of social media to a non-profit, health and human service organization and professional.

This workshop meets the Ohio CSWMFT Board requirement for Social Work Ethics.

LOCATION

Clark State Community College's Brinkman Educational Center
100 S. Limestone Street
Springfield, OH 45502
(937) 328-6054

In downtown Springfield at corner of High and Limestone streets. Free parking behind building, accessible from Limestone.

PRESENTER

Danielle Smith, MSW

Danielle is Executive Director of the Ohio Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW). She has worked for the NASW since 2007 and been responsible for the Chapter's government relations, communications, membership development, and management. She previously worked in the Ohio Senate.

Danielle earned her Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Social Work as well as a Master of Arts in Public Policy and Management, all from The Ohio State University.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

- 3.0 clock hours for social workers, #RSX089101
- The Ohio Board of Nursing accepts events approved for counselors and social workers for continuing nursing education.
- All registrants who require CEUs must sign in and write in time of arrival. Late arrival or leaving early results in time modification of CEU certificate.

CANCELLATION

Cancellation for refund must be received no later than February 27.

Funded, in part, by a Title III grant from the Ohio Department of Aging. The Area Agency on Aging, PSA 2 is non-discriminatory in services and employment.

OBJECTIVES

Participants will be able to:

- Understand the benefits and pitfalls of using social media and new technologies in their practice as a helping professional.
- Increase understanding of social media and networking sites.
- Improve decision-making capacities by reviewing the ethical risks that professionals take on through social media use.
- Gain a better understanding of the legal and safety issues affecting them as a practitioner.
- Gain a better understanding of how to talk to clients about their use of media.
